Scam advice

Police advice if you do not know who you are dealing with – take extreme care.

Devon and Cornwall Police is advising residents that an officer, or your bank, will never:

Phone and ask for your PIN or full banking password;

Ask you to withdraw money to hand over to them for safe-keeping;

Ask you to transfer money out of your account;

Send someone to your home to collect cash, PINs, cards, or cheque books;

Report fraud here: www.actionfraud.police.uk

10. Conservation

Nothing to report.

11. Environment

Tony reported that he had been speaking with a company that provided products suitable for flood defence (flood doors in particular). The company in question have offered to make a presentation to Forder residents, please contact Tony if you are interested

12. Planning issues

No outstanding planning applications

13. Correspondence

Details have been received from BT that during the early part of January they will be carrying out remedial work on Castle Hill. (Details have already been circulated)

14. AOB

Andrea was concerned about the introduction of extra accommodation and dwellings in Trematon Castle grounds. Sam Tamlin was able to reassure those present this was only an enquiry from the new owners. Previous occupiers had attempted to introduce additional buildings.

On behalf of RNLi Pat thanked all those who contributed to a very successful coffee morning, £300.10 had been raised.
